House in Greenwich, Conn.
Completed June, 2009

This project in Greenwich, Connecticut was embarked upon by a renowned builder, with deep interest in tasteful use of natural stone. A large quantity of custom manufactured patterned mosaic tiles was used for the eight bathrooms and two powder rooms house. In addition larger size tile were also selected for the sunroom and master bathroom and library. All of the dimensional fabrication and installation was done by our crew during February through June of 2009. All of the tiles and mosaics were supplied by us as well. All patterned mosaics was designed and manufactured in-house.
